

How you think

Higher mind

Primitive mind

Scientists

"I follow the evidence"

Sports Fans

"I want X to win, but I want the rules followed more"

Attorneys

"I know X is correct, now I just have to figure out why"

Zealots

"X is correct, no evidence will convince me otherwise"

A

B

C

D

E

What you think

Team

Principles

Cognitive Dissonance

Comfortable

Risky

How you think

Higher mind

Primitive mind

Thinking

Morals

Tactics

Seek Truth

Moral Consistency

Fair play
Persuasion

Seek Confirmation

Moral Hypocrisy

Cheating
Coercion

if A is correlated with B

Direct

Reverse

Other Factor

→
Coincidence

Post-Selection Bias

Phenomenon Extremeness

Tame

Extreme

Unrelated

Related

Same

Range of Phenomenon

Concept Creep

Harm
Victims
Villains

Belief in Ideology

Skeptics Impressionables Believers

Profiteers	Timid Proponents	Vocal Proponents
	Authentic Impressionables
	Timid Skeptics	Vocal Skeptics

Profiteers

Timid

Brave

Authenticity

Trust	High	do it	Inside Circle of Influence
		do it & report regularly
		do it & report immediately
		"I intend to"	Outside Circle of Influence make a recommendation
		ask
	Low	wait until told

Something you Know

Something you Are

Something you Have

Fanatic Discipline

Ambition

Productive Paranoia

Empirical Creativity

Mature

Immature

Divine Child

High-Chair
Tyrant

Weakling Prince

Hero

Grand-stander
Bully

Coward

Precocious Child

Know-it-all
Trickster

Dummy

Oedipal Child

Mama's Boy

Dreamer

Persuasion Methods

Change Motivations

Communication

||||| ← Fire Many Fire When Calibrated → ●●●
low risk, low cost, low distraction

	State is Fully Known	Involves Chance
User Input	SIMULATION	GAME
No User Input	COMPUTATION	SIMULATION

Figuring out what people want

Gherkin

Tests

Agile

"have the conversation"

Test-Driven Development

"ensure what you're making does what you want"

Continuous Integration / Continuous Deployment

"fast iterations are best"